Tommy's visit to Maoriland has been responsible for bringing from his retirement Tom Lees, an Australian heavyweight champion of over twenty years ago and who is now a veteran of years. Shortly after Tommy's arrival, Lees lodged $1,000 as a side wager to fight Burns "just to see whether the champions of today are as good as those of yore," as the veteran put it. Tommy Burns accepted the challenge and offered to box any consideration," which brought forth the following reply from the ancient one: "I appreciate Mr. Burns' kindness in promising not to knock crime. Burns also stated that in America Lang will stand no chance at all. Tommy is, however, very much astray in regard to the merits of Squires and Lang, for the latter is a very much better boxer than Bill of the lost punch. Johnson, in fact, ventured the opinion after his defeat of Burns that "Lang gave him more trouble in training than Burns did in the champion-ship." Lang may not be a world's Unholz is New Zealand Champ. Boer Unholz is still in winning form went across to New Zealand and met Tracey, the lightweight champion the dominion, on August 18th, and the Boer scored an easy win. The fight was over fifteen rounds and was witnessed by nearly 4,000 people. For O'Brien's staff. his share of the purse Unholz received $500 and expenses. Tracey was never while Unholz tipped the beam at 137. Tracey was a nervous man as he of the sport on Metropolitan tracks stepped into the ring, the Boer's repuation having overawed him. In the on Tracey's ribs and the fight did not look like going anything like fifteen rounds. In the second Tracey took a hand and landed two fine uppercuts to the Boer's jaw, and again in the third the Boer stopped a similar blow, but retaliated to such purpose that Tracey was on the board for some seconds. The Boer was shining at "in" fighting while Tracey always stood off his man. Unholz was getting all over his opponent, particularly on the rlbs and kldneys, and the bout was wearing a ippercuts in the sixth. In the seventh Tracey was down for four seconds, but the Boer assisted him to his feet in-stead of taking advantage of a good opening. Unholz found Tracey's jaw three times in the ninth. The next few rounds were all the Boer's, but in the twelfth he stopped a beauty on the prosperity and have been well patronpoint from the New Zealander. In the ized thirteenth the Boer chased his opponent all round the ring and, corner-ing him, landed half a dozen blows to the ring in the fifteenth and landed a hard left to the chin. The referee had no hesitation in pronouncing Unholz the winner on points. Unholz stated after the fight that he only wanted to outpoint Tracey and had not tried for a knockout, and this was very evident

o the onlookers. The Boer, in fact, was very kind to the New Zealander right throughout. By winning, the Boer has annexed the lightweight championship of New Zealand. Unbolz arrived back in Sydney on August 24th and it is extremently probable that he will meet George Johns here at an early date for a purse and side wager of $500 or $1,000. Johns is one of the cleverest boxers we have, but has been out of the harness for about two years.

JOHNSON-KETCHEL.

(By Harry B. Smith.) With Jack Johnson stubbornly in-isting on the one hand that he will stand for a postponement of his ght with Stanley Ketchel, scheduled or October 12th, one week from today, nd Promoter Coffroth on the other hand, still striving for a change in the dates, there is an uncertainty to the affair that is not adding in the east to its drawing powers. It is un-sual for Coffroth to allow a fight with which he is connected to hang fire, and this very fact has brought with it other angles, hard to figure out. There s a possibility, as Coffroth has indi-cated, that if coerced to do so, he might call off the match, although with prospective Jeffries-Johnson fight to

New York, Oct. 4.-After two years of agitation against race track gamb-ling in this state, marked by the passage of the drastic anti-betting bill, generally referred to as the Hart-Agnew law, it remained for the King's county grand jury to write a new chapter in the crusade today when there were returned indictments against the two big Kings county race tracks, three police officials, five private detectives and twenty-five book-
